Who are we

Founded in 1979, Ledge Finance is one of Western Australia's leading finance facilitator, providing reliable business and corporate financing solutions to West Australian businesses for over 40 years.

Our team of corporate finance brokers have forged strong relationships with Australia's leading banks and major specialist business lenders. We talk to the banks on your behalf, directly with the managers and the decision-makers. Because we are not aligned with any bank or financier, we can choose the lender – or combination of lenders – which best suits your business.

Our aim is to secure the most suitable corporate or asset finance solutions on your behalf.

We've spent decades creating and consolidating long term, mutually beneficial relationships with clients, assisting them with the overall financial health of their business, which compliments their borrowing requirements.

We are always striving to provide value to our clients, their employees and families in new and innovative ways. Whether it is via promoting them through our digital marketing channels, or through engagement with our industry service partners.

40+ years of experience

Competitive advantage

Build and leveraging relationships

We take the time to understand businesses in depth and detail, including the owners' goals and visions, to provide the best financial solution.

Our long-lasting relationships with many clients over the years, some who have been with us since day one, is a great source of pride to us.

We have the ability to spread your finance over a range of providers to spread your commercial and financial risk.

Mitigate risk

We limit security to the banker with minimal covenants/ conditions/reporting, providing less risk of triggering technical breaches with the bank.

Always available

Our finance executives are available 24/7.

Add value

We add value to many businesses by providing varying financial solutions that best suit their particular needs.

At Ledge, we challenge the process, structure and price, ultimately delivering beneficial outcomes for our clients.

Work as a team

At Ledge we work as a team, so if your contact point isn't available, there is always someone who can help.
